

Student: _____

Date: ___/___/___

Book Title: _____

Period: _____

Write your reactions to the book

or Draw anything in response to the book

A large rectangular box with a black border, containing 15 horizontal lines for writing.

A large rectangular box with a black border, intended for drawing.

How you respond or react to the book:

- . You can talk about the characters, about the events , about the problem(s), what happened at the end
- . You can make a connection to your personal experience or something this book reminds you of
- . You can write a letter to the author and express your opinion about any part of the story or about the book in general
- . You can write about what you learned after listening to this story, what lesson you learned from the story.

What you can draw

- . The characters
- . Setting
- . Important events
- . Your favorite part of the book and explain why
- . A picture about something the book reminds you of and explain why