

Essay Evaluation Sheet

---

1. There is a minimum of five paragraphs in the essay.

6            5            4            3            2            1            0

2. The topic sentence (theme) is clearly stated in the introductory paragraph.

6            5            4            3            2            1            0

3. There is enough supporting information (details, facts or examples).

6            5            4            3            2            1            0

4. The idea and paragraphs are connected by transitional words and phrases.

6            5            4            3            2            1            0

5. The sentences are clear and make sense.

6            5            4            3            2            1            0

6. The paper is free of punctuation and grammatical errors.

6            5            4            3            2            1            0

7. The paper is well organized.

6            5            4            3            2            1            0

8. The conclusion is effective.

6            5            4            3            2            1            0

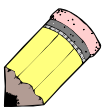

9. Syntax and structure is varied.

6            5            4            3            2            1            0

10. The final version is neat and legible.

6            5            4            3            2            1            0

Total Score _____

Notes / Comments:

6-5	A
4	B
3	C
2	D
1	D
0	F